11 a.m. VitraHaus

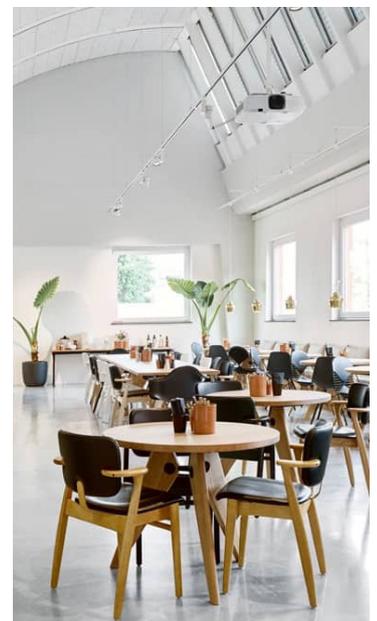

From the top down! Take the lift up and then wander through the VitraHaus in Weil am Rhein from top to bottom. The prominent structure, designed by the Basel architectural duo Herzog & de Meuron, combines the best of the world of timeless design, explains the history behind it and shows us a whole universe of creativity. A highlight – enjoy the surprises it holds in store for you!

24 Stops – Rehberger-Weg – Vitra Campus to Fondation Beyeler

2 p.m. Nature and culture

The Rehberger-Weg links two countries, two communities, two cultural institutions and countless tales over a length of five kilometres. It winds its way from Weil am Rhein to Riehen, through the vineyards on the slopes behind the Vitra Campus, all the way to the Fondation Beyeler. Led by "24 stops" – 24 waymarkers by the artist Tobias Rehberger – you can explore a unique natural and cultural landscape. The Rehberger-Weg and its waymarkers are the perfect motivation for getting to know the local area and its people, combining an excursion into the countryside with the pleasure of inspiring works of art.

4 p.m. Werkraum Warteck

An immediate eye-catcher: this magnificent staircase deserves special attention; its extraordinary construction has adorned the Warteck building since 2014 and is a super spot to add to your Instagram feed. The site of the former Warteck brewery is centrally located just a hundred metres away from the banks of the Rhine. Some courageous visitors run up the long staircase and then treat themselves to a drink on the terrace of the Kulturbeiz 113 with its enchanting view over Basel.

6 p.m. Aperitifs on the banks of the Rhine

No matter where you get out of the river: you will always find a shower just a few metres away somewhere along the shore where you can freshen up. After your cool experience in the Rhine, a wide choice of cafe bars awaits you, for a well-deserved aperitif with sunset and Mediterranean flair.

5 p.m. Swimming in the Rhine

Be honest: Is there another city on this planet where you feel this comfortable in nothing but your swimming trunks in the middle of the city? Swimming in the Rhine is one of the most popular pastimes among the inhabitants of Basel. In the summer months the river transforms into a colourful stream of swimmers, thanks to the "Wickelfisch", an airtight bag in which clothes can be transported without getting wet. The best place to get into the water is at the beach at the Museum Tinguely. Pack your clothes in the "Wickelfisch" and drift through the picturesque historical city centre, carried by the gentle current – and feel at ease clad in nothing but swimming trunks or a bikini.

Swimming in the Rhine

In our popular Brasserie Les Trois Rois we serve you Swiss and French Brasserie-specialities with fresh local ingredients – view over the Rhine included. The varied cuisine, which reflects the rich terroir here, is the fruit of the rigorous work of the team led by our maître d'hôtel, Hervé Mahler, and executive chef de cuisine, Urs Gschwend. Enjoy your dinner surrounded by art and experience our culinary delights in a relaxed atmosphere.

DAY 3 10 a.m. Urban Art

Your guide awaits you in the Artstübli, Basel's first urban-art gallery. On a tour of the city centre you will discover works of art by well-known international urban-art artists such as Invader, London Police, ASVP and Tika.

London Police

11 a.m. Ferry

Four ferries ply the river between the five bridges that span the Rhine in Basel – you cross the Rhine in one of these traditional boats, where the ferryman (the Fährima) may tell you a story.

Midday – Pit stop

Plenty of down-to-earth restaurants and wine bars await you in Kleinbasel, also known as "Lesser" Basel in days gone by because it was a worker's quarter. The Fischerstube still brews its own traditional Basel beer in an ancient copper kettle – and the Consum and Ta Cave bars serve a lovely glass of wine with a delicious aperitif platter.

1 p.m. The origins of urban art

Wander down the Rhine until you reach the harbour area. Here you will find the very source of local urban art. A place that has been in a permanent process of change for years – a fascinating mishmash of people, ideas and impressive works of art. With its restaurants, bars and cultural offerings, the Klybeck area is becoming more and more of a creative hotspot in Basel. New things are constantly being created against its lively backdrop! And to finish, we recommend a visit to the Landestelle restaurant – one last highlight on your Tour des Rois through Basel!
